REQUIRMENTS FOR CANDIDACY:

MAYORAL CANDIDATES:

$300 Qualifying Fee -AND-

Statement of Candidacy with a petition signed by one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) of one percent of registered voters residing in the City of Montgomery (approximately 350 minimum endorsers).

Candidates are responsible for filing Statement of Economic Interest with Ethics Commission and all requirements of Alabama Fair Campaign Practices Act which are to be filed with the Judge of Probate.

If a candidate cannot afford to pay the qualifying fee, they may submit, in lieu of said fee, a signed affidavit to that effect, accompanied by a petition requesting their candidacy signed by not less than one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) of one percent of registered voters (approximately 350) qualified to vote in the mayoral election.

*Essentially, if a candidate cannot pay the filing fee, they may bring: Their Statement of Candidacy and petition with approximately 350+ registered voters – AND – an Affidavit stating that he/she cannot pay the filing fee and a second petition with approximately 350+ registered voters. You will need a total of approximately 700+ signatures between the two petitions from eligible registered voters residing within the city limits. *
